WE regret to say that a telegram was recoived here to-day announcing the death of Mr T. E. Davies, of Messre Douglas Lapraik and Co. Mr Davies, who had been in bad health for some time, left for home about two months ago, but did not get further on his journey than San Francisco, and it was at San Jose, a Californiam health resort, that his death took place. The sad news was wired by his medical attendant, Dr Pierce. A partuer in the firm of Messre Douglas Lapraik and Co., Mr Davies was well known in the colony, and much liked by all who know him; and his death, at a comparatively early age, will be widely regretted. As a mark of respect for the deceased, the flags on the Donglas steamers in the harbour, as well as the Hong flag and that of the Hong-Bitters, &c. kongand Shanghai Bank, were half-mested to-day. Mr Davies was a director of the local Bank and was Chairman : the half-[108 yearly meeting held six months ago.
